Jessenhofke official excise depot

On June 10th we received from the Belgian department of excise tax our excise tax depot number. This will simplify our export activities as we can also allow export leaving our beer at our warehouse in Kuringen.

Last trimester very successful

Over the last 3 months, all previous selling records were broken. Never before so many Jessenhofkes were consumed on different festivals, bio markets & of course at your home of favourite pub. Thanks to all Jessenhofke fans. The 500th selling point is also added to our list of selling points. The honour this time is for beer shop Vonk from Zaandam in Holland. For Holland we now have more than 100 bio markets & beer shops that offer our beer.

Jessenhofke preferred supplier with Bio-Award winners

Both last year winner Roland Dejaeghere from Frejafood as the winner of the year before Jos De Clercq from Natlandhoeve chose Jessenhofke to offer on their parties. Congratulations to the winners & many thanks of course for their choice to offer our beer at many occasions.

Jessenhofke on your party

More and more people ask our beer on the birthday party, baby drink or anniversary party. We like to offer our glasses & free use of our tap to allow you to have a nice party with our beer.
